

La Cocina Catering is a division of the Food Hub at the Chrysalis Center. The Food Hub encompasses various programs aimed at addressing the critical issues of food insecurity and the lack of access to fresh, nutritious foods within the community. As part of the Chrysalis Center's La Cocina Culinary Arts Training Program, our mission is to offer hands-on job training for individuals seeking employment in the culinary arts and hospitality sectors, particularly those who have had limited opportunities. We use fresh produce grown in Urban Roots and our gardens, teaching clients how to prepare these ingredients for the community.

To contact, visit our website at LaCocinaCatering.org or email us directly at LaCocina@chrysaliscenterct.org
