Farmington Bank Donates Grant Funds to Freshplace

Hartford- The Farmington Bank Community Foundation has awarded Chrysalis Center $5,000 to support Freshplace, the organization's innovative food pantry. Executive Director of the Farmington Bank Community Foundation, Chris Traczyk, presented a check to Chrysalis Center while visiting Freshplace.

Freshplace is Chrysalis Center's fresh food pantry serving residents of Hartford's Upper Albany, Clay Arsenal and Asylum Hill neighborhoods. Freshplace not only provides fresh fruits and vegetables, dairy, meat and staple items to families in need, but offers case management and employment services and helps link participant to additional support services in the community.

Farmington Bank has been a great support of Chrysalis Center helping the organization with its annual Christmas Tree and Wreath Sale each December, and most recently, by donating diapers to Freshplace.

Chrysalis Center is a private, non-profit, socially innovative multiservice organization that serves individuals and families living in Connecticut. (www.ChrysalisCenterCT.org) Follow on Twitter: @ChrysalisHTFD and LinkedIn at Chrysalis Center.
