Chrysalis Center Real Estate Corporation Celebrates Legion Court Opening

Hartford – Members of the Chrysalis Center Real Estate Corporation (CCREC) along with developers and local dignitaries attended Wednesday morning’s ribbon cutting ceremony for Legion Court; the newest affordable housing project developed and owned by CCREC.

Legion Court was built on a vacant parcel of land in the South End of Hartford and is comprised of 12-two bedroom townhouses. The project is affordable housing for Veteran families and families and was funded by the State of Connecticut Department of Housing (DOH) and the US Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD).

“Legion Court is a step towards ending homeless for our families in Connecticut”,” said Sharon Castelli, CEO of CCREC. “Projects like Legion Court are a testament to the commitment we have to this task.” Legion Court will provide a new beginning for families who have struggled with homelessness, helping them build a stable life for themselves and their families.
