For Immediate Release: May 16, 2018 - Chrysalis Center Hosts Medal Ceremony for Veterans

Hartford, CT - Chrysalis Center hosted its 3rd Annual Medal Ceremony and presented twenty-one Veterans with Connecticut War Time Service Medals, Cold War Service Medals and Recognition Certificates. Lt. Governor Nancy Wyman, Commissioner Saadi, Commissioner State of CT, Department of Veteran Affairs, and Command Master Chief Ronald Clark, Command Master Chief of U.S. Naval Submarine Base, New London assisted in the presentation of the awards. The Governor's Foot Guard presented colors and luncheon was served to the Veterans and their families in Chrysalis Center's TCC-Training & Conference Center.

Our 2nd Annual Veterans Community Support Award was presented to Carl and Polly Schaefer. They are consistent donors and supporters of Rockville, Vernon, Manchester, Stafford Springs and Enfield Veterans. They organize donations to help Veterans as they settle into our supportive housing and begin transforming their lives.

Chrysalis Center, Inc. is proud to provide support services, including housing and case management to individuals and families struggling with mental illness and/or substance abuse.

Chrysalis Center is a private, non-profit, socially innovative, multiservice organization that serves individuals and their families living in the State of Connecticut.
