

Contact: Maryellen Shuckerow
Chief Community Relations Officer
Chrysalis Center, Inc.
Phone: (860) 263-4400
mshuckerow@chrysaliscenterct.org

Request for Media Coverage for immediate release

Event: Chrysalis Center's 3rd Annual Medal Ceremony
Date: Monday, May 14, 2018
Time: 11:00 a.m.
Venue: Chrysalis Center's TCC (Training & Conference Center)
255 Homestead Avenue, Hartford, CT 06112
(On-site free parking)

We respectfully request your presence to cover and photograph this important community event.

Event Highlights:

Chrysalis Center has arranged for clients to receive Connecticut War Time Service Medals and Cold War Service Medals. Lt. Gov. Nancy Wyman, Commissioner Saadi, Commissioner State of CT, Department of Veteran Affairs, Command Master Chief Ronald Clark, Command Master Chief of U.S. Naval Submarine Base, New London and representatives from the military branches will be there to speak and present the awards. The Governor's Foot Guard will present colors and Dennis Nevin will be singing.

Our 2nd Annual Veterans Community Support Award will be presented to Carl and Polly Schaefer. They are consistent donors and supporters of Rockville, Vernon, Manchester, Stafford Springs and Enfield Veterans. They organize donations to help Veterans as they settle into our supportive housing and begin transforming their lives.

Chrysalis Center, Inc. is proud to provide support services, including housing and case management to individuals and families struggling with mental illness and/or substance abuse.

Chrysalis Center is a private, non-profit, socially innovative, multiservice organization that serves individuals and their families living in the State of Connecticut. Chrysalis Center helps those living in poverty, Veterans, men, women, children, and young adults who are struggling with mental health, addiction, HIV/AIDS, those returning from incarceration and homelessness.
"Getting Help... Getting Better... Giving Back."

www.chrysaliscenterct.org

Follow Chrysalis Center Inc. on Facebook, LinkedIn, and Twitter @ChrysalisHFTD