Chrysalis Center's Exceeds Goal at Annual Butterfly Bash!

Hartford, CT – Chrysalis Center Chief Executive Officer Sharon L. Castelli has announced the organization's Annual Butterfly Bash, which was held on October 18th, exceeding its goal and raised more than $148,000 to help thousands of individuals and families in Connecticut who receive supportive services and housing from the organization.

More than 250 people, including former Connecticut Lieutenant Governor Kevin Sullivan, his wife Carolyn Thornberry, attended the event, which was held at the TCC, Training and Conference Center at the Chrysalis Center in Hartford.

Addressing the crowd, Master of Ceremonies, Renee DiNino, Director of Community Affairs & On-Air Programming for iHeartMedia and midday host on The River 105.9, said, "The funds raised tonight will not only provide supportive services to thousands in need in our state, but they will provide hope. I am proud to be here tonight and to be a part of this amazing organization."

The Butterfly Bash is the signature fundraising event for Chrysalis Center, raising much needed funds to support the agency's mission to provide supportive services to assist people in need to transform their lives. Partner sponsors included: Hammer N Nails LLC; Aetna; Advanced Office Systems; Dakota Partners, Hoopes, Morganthaler, Rausch & Scaramozza; Gallagher, Paul B. Bailey Architect, Sonitrol and TD Bank.
